THE VANISHED STATUES – A WALK

Explore the Fitzroy Gardens with Dr Monique Webber, an academic with specialties in art, architecture and design, discovering the sites where statues formerly stood and learning why they were placed there.

As well as revealing much about the culture of nineteenth century Melbourne Monique will solve the mystery of why the statues were removed almost overnight and what happened to them afterwards.

WEDNESDAY 20 FEBRUARY 2019 – 3.00 P.M

Meet at the Conservatory (south end)

The walk will last approximately one hour and will mainly follow the pathways

Numbers are limited to twenty and bookings are essential

If demand is sufficient the walk will be repeated. Please book by Monday 18 February
