MYSTERY PHOTOGRAPHS: AN UNVEILING

In 2022 the East Melbourne Library was given a collection of old glass plate negatives, all unidentified. Fiona Campbell, our local history librarian, and a band of loyal volunteers have spent every Wednesday since scanning the negatives and researching their subject matter.

What they have found out is extraordinary.

In this talk Fiona will take us through her story of research and what they discovered. A selection of the photos will be on exhibition at the library at the time of the talk.
