Historical Walking Tour of East Melbourne

Join former architect Lisette Malatesta for an engaging walking tour of historic East Melbourne. Discover how this remarkable suburb has evolved, from its earliest inhabitants to its most notable residents. Along the way, Lisette will highlight significant architectural features, reveal hidden details, and share intriguing stories and fun facts about the streets and laneways that shape the area's character.

This brisk tour departs from the Visitor Information Centre at the Fitzroy Gardens at 10:00am and concludes at the eastern end of George Street at approximately 11:30am.
